↑ Construction on Tishman Speyer's Lumina has progressed steadily since our last update. Both towers of the 656-unit development are now topped out. The mid-rise portion of project is also fully clad, with glass rising quickly on its adjoining towers. Assuming construction continues to move along smoothly, Lumina, along with its \$49 million penthouse and answer to the Twitter building's fancy food market, will open in 2016.
